26-28 OCTOBER

Cultural opportunities and challenges

Updated on October 11, 2022

DESCRIPTION

Selected VE leaders are invited to participate in round-table discussions and facilitate a deep dive into the selected topics. The sessions are designed to provide a comfortable balance between information and audience participation, discussing and presenting the key topics affecting the region. It will be attempted to ensure that the sessions will involve a mix of experts from the geographical length and breadth of the region, thereby presenting the full educational cultural spectrum.

Duration per session: 60 min

Number of sessions: There are four planned Cultural “Opportunities and Challenges” sessions
